

Terms & Conditions of Charter

1. A 25% estimate of the cruise fees or minimum of $500 deposit will confirm your charter.
2. The balance of the charter fee is payable 7 days prior to the charter, other arrangements by negotiation.
3. Deposits will be refunded if the charter is cancelled more than 60 days prior to the charter (less $100 booking fee).
4. If cancelled within 60 days a refund will be given only if the time is re- booked.
5. Bookings cancelled within 7 days of the charter will be invoiced for the full cost.
6. The invoice will be calculated on the final number of guests advised, not later than 5 days prior to the charter or the number actually on board, whichever is the greater number.
7. Guests must accompany any consumption of alcohol with an appropriate quantity of substantial food for the duration of the cruise.
8. If the client provides their own wait-staff, they must commence from and return to our mooring at d'Albora Marina Cabarita Point, for preparation and cleaning. This is usually one hour before and after guest pick-up and drop-off times.
9. "The charterer" shall be liable for any damage to the vessel, equipment, or furnishings caused by themselves or any member of their party.
10. Neither the operators of "Silver Spirit Luxury Cruises" nor the owners shall be liable for any injury, loss or damage however suffered to any person arising from the charter;
11. "The charterer" shall indemnify the vessel owners and operators against such claims;
12. Unruly, drunken, illegal or dangerous behaviour may, at the sole discretion of the skipper, result in the immediate ejection of any and all passengers at the nearest permissible wharf area with no refund.
13. No drunks, no drugs, no drama.
14. Payment of a deposit for any charter indicates acceptance of these terms and conditions of charter.
